AND THE

Vol. III, No. 2

November 13, 1977

A Vast Wilderness Publication

Diplomacy is the ability to say "Look out for Austria. He's going to stab you." with a straight face.

I first would like to mention that Dom Rittel is dropping out of the hobby. He has been a good friend and a good ally, and I shall miss him. This is typical of what's going on in the hobby lately. Zines of old and established reputation are falling by the way side. LenLakofka's L.D. which had been published since 1969 is no more. He is also evidently dropping out of the hobby. Other zines which I regarded as models of regularity have not been seen in a while.

So I have been giving considerable thought to the situation and to the letters I have received about Saint George. Therefore I have decided to continue with Saint George for the immediate future. As games end, I may be opening new ones. I believe this phenomenon is called "Second-wind".

I have received comments from a number of players that they were reluctant to make moves that would prolong the game. I wish to assure you that you should never make that a consideration. I have committed to carrying these games, and whether in the future I decide to withdraw from the hobby or not, I will carry your game as long as you decide there is reason to continue. No one should ever settle for a draw he doesn't want instead of going for a win or a smaller draw just because he thinks I want to end the game.

Since 5 of the 6 games had supply center charts printed with them, there wasn't enough room to resume some of the features. Saint George Speaks will return next issue. And we always welcome articles.

Austria-Italy: Agreed.

Berlin: The Kaiser regrets that he was not able to come up with something more original last season, but he was so busy listening to all the countries who might be interested in a piece of the Russian Empire and who might feel themselves to be victims of Tsarist hyper-expansionary policies.
Kiel: Can a sextuple((quintuple?)) alliance wipe out utterly a ten((nine)) center Russia? The Kaiser points out to his Austrian and French neighbors that they should not fear German growth. There is so much for him to feed on in Russia that he need never look elsewhere. And he expects the Tsar to fight every inch of the way.

Underlined orders cannot be carried out. CAPS denote final resting place of unit. England must retreat the fleets from Norway and Sweden. The retreat from Sweden will determine the ownership of Denmark, as is reflected in the supply center chart. Because of this factor and the number of builds and removals, only winter is due for next deadline.

Press, 1976JW--

Berlin: Since the Imperial Government recognizes but four Great Powers in Europe at this time, we solemnly request that a draw be coted on at this moment in history between Italy, Russia, France, and Germany.

Galician Free Press: The favortie slogan in Europe this year is Roma, Go Roma.

Ankara: As the brave Ottomans fall back under the tremendous onslaught of the corrupt, vermillion-hued rabble, let it be known that the military council now ruling the remaining vestiges of our Fatherland will not suffer even one meter of Turkish soil to be defaced by the self-styled Holy Roman Emperor. As one notable in history has said: Neither was it Holy, Roman, nor was it an Empire."

Be it known then: the Drang nach osten will be met with ruthlessness and uncompromising nihilism on the parts of the remaining loyal Turkish Patriots.

Rome, 25 Dec, 1902) The House of Piedmont-Savey demands the immediate surrender of the jackasses in both Berlin and Paris immediately !

Breslau, Silesia: Stanley Stemkowski, thirty-six, was released from St.
Wensceslaus Hospital into custody of local authorities today, and remanded on charges of attempted terrorist activities. Stemkowski, an admitted member of the clandestine Polish Order of Loyal Austrian Citizens(POLAC), was injured while allegedly attempting to damage city property in protest against continued German presence in Tyrolia.

The self-styled freedom fighter, a distant relative of Vienna Vonders' hockey star Peter("The Magnetic Pole") Stemkowski, was hospitalized after burning his lips on the exhaust pipe of a bus he was ordered to blow up.

The Boardman Numbers

I know you think there isn't anything more to say on this subject, but you're wrong. As of November 1, 1977 Doug and Marie Beyerlein are no longer the Boardman number CO*Custodians. We would like to take this opportunity to thank the Beyerleins for a job well done. It can't have been easy and it is remarkable the job was so well carried out. (That sounds vaguely insulting, but isn't meant to be. I know that had I been Boardman number custodian the numbers would be in a god-awful mess right now.)

We would also like to welcome Cal White, the new BNC, to the ranks of our traders. We hope he carries out the duties of BNC with continued enthusiasm.
